

VENTURE DESIGN

Venture Design : one significant key factor to success is how do I setup my company (Venture Design).

If I am a Software Web development Company I will want to use lean development processes like Scrum, quick and fast to market. If I am developing HW/SW for an airline, then I will focus much more on security than speed.

Already shortly after the Idea one should have an idea of how the company will look in the future.

"A professional entrepreneur visions the future into the present"
