

BIZ PLAN COMPETITIONS

Biz Plan Competitions fulfill a number of things. They are a sounding board on the viability of your technology, your team and your market strategy.

Of course winning a prize is great too, but this is straight and direct feedback from experienced Business Angels and VCs. With that you might get enough visibility for an Angel or VC to want to learn more, so potentially also one foot into the door. Competing at multiple levels (local, regional, global) or in different competitions can also give you a variety of feedback. Very valuable!
